

WESTERN AUSTRALIA DESIGNATED AREA MIGRATION AGREEMENT

ELIGIBILITY AND CRITERIA

(updated 1 July 2024)

Terms of the Western Australia (WA) Designated Area Migration Agreement

Western Australian businesses seeking to build their workforce through an individual Designated Area Migration Agreement (DAMA) must first seek, and gain endorsement from, an authorised Designated Area Representative (DAR).

The Department of Training and Workforce Development, through Migration Services is the authorised DAR for the WA DAMA.

The WA DAMA enables eligible employers in Western Australia, who are unable to recruit appropriately qualified Australians, to supplement their workforce with Skilled Overseas Worker(s) through three (3) visa pathways:

- Temporary Skills Shortage (subclass 482) visa;
- Skilled Employer Sponsored Regional (Provisional) (subclass 494) visa; or
- Employer Nominated Scheme (ENS) (subclass 186) visa.

Endorsement validity period

An approved WA DAMA endorsement is valid for twelve (12) months only.

Designated Area definition

The Designated Area covered by the WA DAMA is the State of Western Australia comprising of the following regional categories:

Category	Postcodes
Category 2 – Cities and major regional centres	6000 to 6038 6050 to 6083 6090 to 6182 6208 to 6211 6214 and 6556 to 6558
Category 3 – Regional centres and other regional areas	All post codes in Western Australia not mentioned above.

When reviewing the WA DAMA criteria in conjunction with the above definition:

- category 2 is referred to as “Metropolitan Perth”; and
- category 3 is referred to as “Regional Western Australia”.

Current active Regional WA DAMAs

In Western Australia there are four (4) regional DAMAs currently in operation, that are tailored to meet the unique demands of their respective regions, providing local employers with specific concessions to attract skilled migrants. To access one of the active DAMAs you will need to contact them directly.

Regional Area	Parties	Areas Covered
Goldfields	City of Kalgoorlie Boulder and Home Affairs	The Goldfields DAMA region is defined by local government authority boundaries of the City of Kalgoorlie-Boulder, Shires of Coolgardie, Dundas, Esperance, Laverton, Leonora, Menzies and Ravensthorpe.
Kimberley	East Kimberley Chamber of Commerce and Industry and Home Affairs	The Kimberley DAMA region is defined by local government authority boundaries of the Shires of Wyndham East Kimberley, Broome, Halls Creek, and Derby-West Kimberley.
Pilbara	Regional Development Australia – Pilbara and Home Affairs	The Pilbara DAMA region is defined by local government authority boundaries of the City of Karratha, Town of Port Hedland and Shire of East Pilbara.
South West	Shire of Dardanup and Home Affairs	The South West DAMA region is defined by local government authority boundaries of the City of Bunbury, City of Busselton and the Shires of Augusta-Margaret River, Boyup Brook, Bridgetown-Greenbushes, Capel, Collie, Dardanup, Donnybrook-Balingup, Harvey, Manjimup, and Nannup.

Structure of the WA DAMA

The WA DAMA is intended to complement the existing regional DAMAs and further support the State, operating on a two-tiered structure as outlined below:

- Metropolitan Perth
- Regional Western Australia

To ensure equitable access to nominated business located anywhere in WA:

- up to 50% of available places will be made available – Metropolitan Perth.
- up to 50% of available places will be made available – Regional WA.

Occupations available under the WA DAMA

To access the WA DAMA, the nominated occupation must be available for the intended visa subclass and tier. Please check the WA DAMA eligibility occupation list

Please note:

- where the nominating occupation is available in one of the active Regional DAMA areas, and is available on the relevant DAMA Occupation list, endorsement must be sought directly from the relevant Regional DAMA;

- where the nominating occupation is not available on a relevant DAMA Occupation list and is available through the WA DAMA, an Endorsement application for the nominated position can be submitted to Migration Services; and
- where the nominated occupation is available under an existing Home Affairs approved Industry Labour Agreement, the nominated occupation can only be considered for endorsement if the nominated Skilled Overseas Worker(s) will be employed in an industry that is different to the industry stated in the relevant Industry Labour Agreement.

Concessions available through the WA DAMA

Through the WA DAMA, eligible businesses can seek to access a range of concessions to the requirements in the Commonwealth Migration Legislation required to sponsor a Skilled Overseas Worker(s) and grant of a visa application that include:

- an increase in the maximum age from 45 to 55;
- English language concessions for selected occupations;
- reduced skills and work experience requirements; and
- visas with pathways for the Skilled Overseas Worker(s) to obtain permanent residency.

Amendments to an existing approved Endorsement

In order to amend, update or vary the original terms of an approved Endorsement application, the nominated business must submit a Subsequent Endorsement application and follow the same application process as the standard WA DAMA application process.

Requests for variations to occupations, concessions and business ceilings are assessed in accordance with program availability.

Conditions and obligations of accessing the WA DAMA

To access the WA DAMA nominating businesses must meet the following criteria:

1. provide relevant business details and a declaration the employer has no adverse information relating to employment of workers, as detailed in eligibility criteria 1,2,3 outlined below;
2. register on the Skilled Migrant Employment Register to aid in finding suitable migrants to nominate as part of the DAMA, as specified in eligibility criteria 4 outlined below;
3. commit to allowing migrants to attend employment law information sessions as specified by Migration Services; and
4. complete an annual return verifying the details of all migrants employed under the agreement.
5. understand and agree to the following:
 - A. that by submitting an application for Endorsement you are confirming your intent to:
 - access the Western Australian Designated Area Migration Agreement (WA DAMA) occupations and concessions;
 - apply to enter into a Labour Agreement with the Commonwealth Department of Home Affairs (Home Affairs);
 - provide evidence of Labour Market testing conducted in the last 12 months prior to lodging the nomination application as required by the Migration Legislation for the nominated occupation; and
 - ensure that Skilled Overseas Worker(s) sponsored through Labour Agreements receive terms and conditions that meet applicable Australian workplace Law and are no less favourable than those provided to Australian workers.

- B. acknowledge that you are aware of, and agree to comply with, all applicable Commonwealth Migration legislation, including your sponsorship obligations.
- C. accept that Migration Services is the “Designated Area Representative” (DAR) for the WA DAMA and:

If Migration Services approves an Endorsement application, the outcome will be sent to the Department of Home Affairs to allow the nominating business to progress to the next steps.

Endorsement requests for Employer Nominated Scheme (ENS) (subclass 186 visa)

Nominated businesses seeking to nominate an existing Temporary Skill Shortage (TSS) subclass 482, or Skilled Employer Sponsored Regional (SESR) (Labour agreement stream) subclass 494, employee must meet the below eligibility criteria:

- nominated occupation must be available under the WA DAMA;
- nominated employee has lived and worked in the Metropolitan Perth (as defined in WA DAMA tier 1) for a period of three (3) years, or Regional Western Australia (as defined in WA DAMA tier 2) for a two (2) year period;
- nominated occupation must be connected to the existing employee's experience in Western Australia whilst nominated on the TSS visa; and
- offer of full-time employment for at least two (2) years, with possibility of extension offer of permanent employment.

Note 1) this pathway is only accessible to those skilled migrants whose original nomination resulted from endorsement under the WA DAMA.

Note 2) Labour marketing testing is not required under the ENS pathway.

Lodging an Endorsement application does not guarantee it will be approved, nor that it will be approved for the number of positions, occupations or concessions requested.

- The Department of Home Affairs is responsible for the assessment and granting of all Labour Agreements and visas.
- The WA DAMA program may be amended at any time, including to align with directions provided by the Department of Home Affairs.
- The DAR reserves the right to amend Occupation Lists, policy and endorsement criteria at any time.
- The DAR reserves the right to exercise discretion in allocating places under the WA DAMA program.
- Such decisions will be guided by the following principles:
 - equity of access to allocated places;
 - mix of occupations; and
 - reasonable spread of nominating businesses.
- The DAR reserves the right to withdraw an Endorsement application and any offer of endorsement at any time.
- Businesses must be able to substantiate the claims made through the application process, and any on-going compliance requirements.

The information provided in an Endorsement application will be examined and verified by Migration Services.

Document verification

Verification checks will be undertaken for the documents provided by businesses during the application and assessment process. This includes contacting employers and other stakeholders directly to confirm information and documents provided are genuine.

Businesses which provide false or misleading information may have their application declined. The Department of Training and Workforce Development may also report false and misleading information to the Commonwealth Department of Home Affairs.

Reviews of decision to decline a WA DAMA Endorsement application

If a WA DAMA Endorsement application is declined, nominating businesses have the opportunity to request a review.

A review request must clearly outline the basis for the request. The review process can only consider the documentation and information supplied with the original endorsement application. No additional documentation, or changed circumstances, will be considered.

To request a review, please email migration@dtwd.wa.gov.au.

All review requests must be submitted to Migration Services within 28 calendar days of the date of the email advising the nominated business of the outcome of a WA DAMA Endorsement application.
